

WORKSHOP

Environment & Development

Thursday 10 September 2026

PEGE — 61 avenue de la Forêt Noire, FSEG building
Salle du Conseil, 1st floor — Breaks: cafeteria, 1st floor

8:45 – 9:00	Welcome coffee
9:00 – 9:15	Introduction
9:15 – 10:00	François Libois — PSE, INRAE Forging Conservation: The Legacy of Metallurgy on European Forests (with Maria Cano Luengo)
10:00 – 10:05	Transition
10:05 – 10:50	Jennifer Alix-Garcia — University of Oregon Can Graduation Programs be Greener? Experimental Evidence from BOMA's Green REAP in Northern Kenya (with Lasse Brune, Dean Karlan, Halefom Nigus)
10:50 – 11:05	Break
11:05 – 11:50	Joseph K. Djafon — BETA, Université de Strasbourg Intrahousehold Labor Allocation, Remittances, and Selection into Migration: Evidence from Senegal
11:50 – 11:55	Transition
11:55 – 12:40	Anne Stenger — BETA, INRAE Economic Concern and the Limits of Information for Climate Adaptation: Evidence from a Vignette Experiment in Vietnam
12:40 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Isabelle Chort — TREE, UPPA The Legacy of Phylloxera on French Forests
14:45 – 14:50	Transition
14:50 – 15:35	Louise Boisserie — BETA, Université de Strasbourg When Shields to Early Childbearing and Marriage Breakdown: The Case of the Ebola Outbreak in West Africa
15:35 – 15:50	Break
15:50 – 16:50	General discussion Ongoing projects, methods, open questions — overlaps and possible joint work

Each presentation lasts 45 minutes, questions included.

For the closing discussion, feel free to prepare a few minutes to open the conversation on the projects you currently have under way — question, data, avenues you are considering — if you would like to share them.

CONTACT

Marie Boltz m.boltz@unistra.fr · Philippe Delacote philippe.delacote@inrae.fr · Julien Jacob julienjacob@unistra.fr